The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

2012 A DAY OF PRAYER

WHEREAS, the citizens of the State of Idaho are a diverse people, representing many nations and religious traditions; and

WHEREAS, the history of our country is replete with leaders who voluntarily called upon their God with needs both great and small, such as:

“It would be particularly improper to omit, in this first official act, my fervent supplication to that Almighty Being, Who rules over the universe, Who presides in the councils of nations, and Whose providential aids can supply every human defect, that His benediction may consecrate to the liberties and happiness of the people of the United States.” – George Washington, Inaugural Address, April 1788

“We humbly and fervently implore the Almighty disposer of events – to maintain the Constitution and to bless our nation with tranquility, under Whose benign influence we may reach the summit of happiness and glory, to which we are destined by nature and by nature’s God.” – William Penn, 1799

“Knowing that intercessory prayer is the mightiest weapon and the supreme call for all Christians today, I pleadingly ask our people everywhere to pray; believing that prayer is our greatest contribution that our people can make in this critical hour, I humbly urge that we take time to pray – to really pray.” – Robert E. Lee, 1864

“It is the duty of mankind on all suitable occasions to acknowledge their dependence on the Divine Being.” – Benjamin Franklin concerning a fast day, 1748

“While the people are virtuous, they cannot be subdued, but when they lose their virtue, they will be ready to surrender their liberties to the first external or internal invader.” – Samuel Adams while signing the Declaration of Independence, 1776

“I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had absolutely no other place to go.” – Abraham Lincoln concerning his belief in the prayer, Date Unknown; and

WHEREAS, the motto of the National Day of Prayer and the State Day of Prayer is “One Nation Under God” a reaffirmation for the biblical exhortation in Psalm 33:12 “Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord”;

NOW THEREFORE, I, C. L., “Butch” Otter, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim May 3rd to be in Idaho, and invite citizens to gather together on this day in their homes, churches, public meeting places, and various places of worship to pray in their own way for unity of the hearts of all mankind, and the return of strong moral character in the lives of the people of all nations, and peace and understanding throughout the world.

BEN YSURSA
SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 3rd day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and twelve and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-sixth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty second.
